MOLLY'S CHARM

Molly ain't got education.
But her smile
Makes your heart seem full o' sunshine
All the while.
Though the song she sings is simple,
It's so gay.
That it makes yer sort o' happy
All the day.

Molly can't spell, but her letters
To a man
Makes him want ter do the very Best he can.
An' her words o' cheer and comfort,
Joy and mirth
Makes yer feel that heaven's closer
To the earth.

Molly never had much schoolin',
But my life
Would be awful sad 'thout Molly's
For my wife.
Just ter see the life she's livin'
Is like prayer—
Molly ain't got education
I don't care!

HAY FEVER FOLKS WILL TAKE NOTICE

(By Associated Press)
Cincinnati, O., Oct. 27.—A national campaign against sneeze producers was described by Dr. William Scheppegrell, president of the American Hay-Fever-Prevention Association today.
Dr. Scheppegrell said one per cent of the population of the United States suffers from hay-fever. To relieve their annual period of sneezing and sniffling, Dr. Scheppegrell's Association is engaged in a nation-wide publicity and educational campaign on ver and for the passage of laws for the eradication of weeds that cause the disease.

"Education in the relationship of pollens to hay-fever has made the most satisfactory progress during the past year," said Dr. Scheppegrell.
"The public was first impressed with the fact that the principal cause of hay-fever in the United States, were the rag weed, whose pollen during the months of August and September filled the atmosphere with their irritating pollens, and that these, as well as most of the other plants which cause hay-fever, had already been outlawed by the agricultural interests."

Chicago, Ill., San Francisco, Cal.;
New Haven, Conn., Jacksonville, Fla.,
Omaha, Neb., Charleston, S. C., Salt Lake City, Utah, Ogden, Utah, Huntington, W. Va., and Maplewood, N.
J., have passed ordinances for the eradication of hay-fever weeds.

Dr. Scheppegrell's Association employs inspectors to assist the local authorities in the discovery and prosecution of the violators of the grass and weed ordinances.
"It is important, however, in preparing such ordinances that the requirements should not be too drastic," said Dr. Scheppegrell. "In a prominent city, for instance, there is at present an ordinance requiring the grass to be kept below four inches, the results of which is continual legal opposition to its enforcement.
We have made the limit twelve inches which is sufficient to prevent the pollination of most hay-fever weeds and is easily enforced."
